TOOK TIME TO DEVELOP THE KAHANAMOKU KICK

How the Hawaiian Swimmer, Aided by American Coaching, Added to His Crudefate Power A Wonderfully Effective Style

Hollywood suddenly discovered Duke P. Kahanamoku of the Hilo, Hawaii, champion of the Hawaiian board, and possibly the greatest surfer in the world's surfing history. He is a more than a surfer in the Hawaiian trade. Kahanamoku is unique in the world of sports because he has been all his life a surfer, having started as a boy with the surfboard and never since leaving the water. His life has been spent in surfing. He has been the most famous surfer in the world, and he is still considered the greatest surfer in the world. Kahanamoku was born in 1902 in Hawaii, where he learned to surf at an early age. He began his career in 1915 and has been a professional surfer ever since. Kahanamoku is known for his incredible speed and agility in the water. He has won numerous awards and has set many records. Kahanamoku is a true Hawaiian legend and his story is one of inspiration for all who love the sport of surfing.